

ROYAL NORWEGIAN EMBASSY

3rd ICE CONSTITUENCY MISSION TO THE ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK

8-12 MARCH, 2010 - MANILA, PHILIPPINES

The Royal Norwegian Embassy in Manila, in close coordination with our Constituency Office at the Asian Development Bank (ADB), would like to invite you to participate in a Joint Trade Mission to the ADB from March 8th – 12th, 2010.

Finding the right business partner has become increasingly important to be successful at the ADB. This mission seeks to bring together companies from the 'Ice' Constituency Office of the Bank, as well as regional trade officers to provide a unique networking and partnering opportunity.

The mission is designed to introduce and prepare companies and individuals, both experienced and newcomers, to the ADB. The program will include briefings, presentations focusing on specific sectors, and individual appointments with ADB staff, providing the possibility to:

- Learn about ADB's policies and procedures for recruitment of consultants and procurement
- Network with ADB officers and project/sector specialists
- Discover new business opportunities and projects in the pipeline
- Learn from successful, experienced ADB consultants
- Network with other delegation members and identify partnering opportunities.

The mission is being planned in conjunction with our constituency office at the ADB and organized by the embassies and trade organizations of the participating countries. The mission will be open to companies and individuals from countries belonging to the "ICE-Constituency", which includes Canada, Denmark, Finland, Ireland, The Netherlands, Norway and Sweden.

If you're interested in working with ADB and securing ADB contracts, we strongly encourage you to participate in the 3rd ICE Constituency Mission to ADB. Read more about the ADB on www.adb.org
